

Participant Guidelines

On the each event Footprints for Peace is committed:

- to being drug and alcohol free, in solidarity with indigenous and non indigenous communities and people from around the world whose communities have been devastated by the effects of drugs and alcohol. Alcohol has also been used by the multinational corporations to divide communities, helping them get the mining rights for the area...
- to accept gratefully what is offered by hosts and supporters and to leave any place we use cleaner than we find it
- to respect each others' beliefs and be willing to compromise
- to non-violent and non-abusive manner at all times
- to providing a safe environment for all regardless of gender, race, ethnicity, sexual preference, age, or any differently abled person
- to creating an exciting open moving community where everyone feels a part of this event
- to being responsible for all our own belongings
- to being helpful when needed
